LETTER II. Although we have not been able to obtain the first of these Lecters, yet it was thought proper to jubiifh this which feems to beathe the true Spirit of the Britis Minifley, opens their P.ot and painly aiscovers to us what we have to expect from them, Should they be able to earry their treasonab e defient into xecurion.]

THE THER this is the bek of pollible worlds, is a point with which the politician has nothing to do : he must take men as they are, and till the period of the Milenium arrives, wars and tumults will poffels their full number of pages in the history of mankind A too eager love of peace, the child of pufi lani mity, will be generally found a prelude to the most dest uctive Icenes of blood and flaughter. Whenever unavoidable danger pretents itfelt, prudence directs us to face it boldly. Shall our humamity induce us to leave the contest fo big with danger to our immediate defeendants ? Forbid it, jul tice and paternal affection ! The probability of fuccefs, which is now on our fide, will be against them. Yet, thall we give up the fo vereignty in America, their right of inheritance, and the price of fo many cares, and of fo much blood and treature, without fome fleuggle ! Though they, it the contest was dele red till their day, might prohabiy fait, and involve the British Empire in ruin, yet we, by a spirited conduct now may fhelter them from the danger, and procrattinate the event.

The Bottonians have been guilty of num. berlefs acts of retellion, which have no other real foundation, than their opinion that they cafion, large todies of men appear in arms, with the avowed latention at fighting the King's troops; let them have their humour; in every effential point of view they are the enemies of Great Britain, and their infuits muit not be forgiven, because they are tian ge ous, fo dangerous that suppose them defeated, suppose them tuing for forgiveness, with all the humility which may be expected from their pref at infolence, they mult not be for given, they can never be again intitled to the protection and encouragement of the Mother Country Their foil and climate, their growing manufactories of iron and wool, their thip building, and even their industry, are our natural, our irreconcilable enemies. The colonifts muk not only be defeated, but as faras it is in our power, the colonies defiroyed. This may be done without much of that carnage which is to dreaded by us. The Ready and inferiple regulations of policy by which every tource of trade or manufactures muft be cut off from the Northern colonies, and every poffible encouragement given to fettlements in warmer latitudes, can alone eff & it. Indico, rice, rum, lugar, cotton, fi k, and the various productions of the Tropics, are commo dities we want, and the habits of life in Southern chantes will forever prevent their interfering with our laborious manufactories. Mutual wants are the true foundation of trade and political friendship, and colonies established without this perm ment view, have ever been the quin of the Mother Country. We want nothing from the colony mon dangerous to us, but providions, and tumber for the iflands-and those it will furnith even were it in a much lefscultivated and improved Rate than it now is.

The Americans are fond of repeating their arguments, though it feems agreed on all lides that 'tie time that action fhould commence. I fhall not therefore enter inte these reasons by which a Mother Country may be judified in ruining a colony which has been found prejudicial to her; they deny the debt of gratitude, by afferting, that we railed and supported them from motives of interest alone; admit this to be true, we raited them at an immenic expence, with permanent views of political advantage; they are now lound to be not barely detrimental, but highly dangerous to us ; the fame policy will teach us to deftroy that which we have been milaken in detending and supporting : this ownsot be done without much private injury and public calamity ; but in disputes of this magnitude, they are unavoidable. In the management of national concerns, the leffer evil mill be refolutely chosen, and to liften to the complaints of unavoidable evil is a darrgerous humanity, and will have the fame eff et as the most contemptible weakness. Shall we, to avoid the effusion of human blood, give up the f versignty of America without a blow? What kind of philanthropy must that be which can refolve on this, and furvey with a fleady eye, the dreadful profpeds of calamity and ruin, which will im mediately overwhelm the British empire-If by our tamenes, or by American refolution, the colonies are torn from us; expedients, in a dispute so rooted as this is, were always ridiculous, and are now, by all par tier, given up. What trivial nonfenfe are sfidavits to prove who fired first; the moment the Americans attempted to raife troops with the avowed intention of refifting government by force, the first bullet should have been fired, and that we have fo long deferred it; is an error for which we that! be feverely punified. We ought long ere now to have been as unanimous as the Americans, in perceiving that the voice of nocefficy, and the great vortex of human affairs, is too powerful to be confined by the forms of a configuion. The fword alone can decide this dispute ; and he is a traitor to his country who does not contribute every thing in his power to prevent the ruin of the Brillhempiet, which will immediately take place if we are defeated.

From L'oyd's Evening P.A. POLITICAL OSSERVATIONS.

N the course of animadversion upon our difpute with America, the principle. " That where foever the furrems power of Legislation is vested, there also centers the Supreme power of Taxation," has ben (it is thought) fully proved to the conviction of every unbit fed Reader; and indeed the Americans themfeives ferm fo thoroughly emvinced of it, as to have given up the diftindion, no: only between internal and external Taxition but alfo the diff rence b tweenthe leg Sative and the taxing Power; well knowing that they who can tax will tule, and thole who can rule must and will tax; the Ad of Taxation being an effential act of dominion and fivereignty, without which no Government can fuont, or main.

tain its authority. The rebellious Americans depend upon their numbers, and d fance trom us; but. we hope they will be of but little service to. them for there are other ways and means of differ Ming them, bell les our meeting them in the field Their wealth is the fource of their rebeltion; and our Miniary have already wifely begun to reduce them to reafon by toffening it, and when they had them. folves fe blocked up by fea, that nothing can go to or come from them without falling into our hands; or, if that will not do, that their v ff ils and properties are feized, and, if accation requires, their coals plundered, their towns and ports reduced to ah es, &: poverty and diffreds will by degrees break in upon them; and though they have got a great Army, they will see their ruin daily approaching, without being able to prevent it. If, therefore, they fill perfit in their rebellion, contrary to their own i derell, and contrary to all the feelings of humanity for their fellow Subjects but in a more parti oulst manner, contrary to the companion they ought to have for their Wives and Children, all the evils and calamities that arife from it will, in the fight of God and Man, lie at their door ; and even the cries of the injured Orphan and Widow, that will go up to Heaven upon that account, will go up againft them."

June 6. From Sico we learn that an exprefe was arrived there. addressed to the Commandant, with an order from the Grand Signior, importing that all the Christian women who had been married in that iffand to Turks, mus forfake them; and that for the future no Turk thall, on any account whatfoever, espouse a Christian. It is faid that this order hath been given in confequence of a request which the women of that ifland caused to be presented to the Grand Sultanets, to whom the Grand Signior refuses nothing.

June 8. Yefterday the Recorder paffed fentence of death at the Seffions-House in the Old Bailey, upon Meffrs, Robert and Deniel Perreau, and 13 other convicts. Mrs. Rudd war fent to the bar, and the Recorder in ormed her that it was the unanimous opinion of the faree Judges, who attended at the trial of the Perreaus, that the thould be detained; upon which Sir Thomas Frankland entered into a recegn since to profecute her at the next fellion for forging two bonds in his possission. She was therefore ordered to be detained in Newgate till the next fellion. Mrs. Rudd defired to be admitted to bail; but the Recorder informed her that could not be done, naleft by application to the Court of King's Beach.

BALTIMORE, Amuit 20. By Capt James Wood, who was depu ed by our Affembly, to invite the feveral uthes of Oato Indians to a treaty, to be hele at Fort Pitt, on the 10th of next month, and who returned last night, we learn, that he had vifited the Delawares, Shawarele Srsecas, Winners and Tawass - The she Commanding Officer at Detroit and Deputy Agent for Indian affiles, and Monneur Baby, a Frenchman, had fent Beite and Strings of Wampum to feventeen Nations, including those above mentioned; informing them, that uniefs they all united the Virginians would take their country from them ;-that they purpoted to attack them two different ways ;-one by the Onio, the other by the Lakes ;-that the Virginians would invite them to a Treaty, bur that they ought by no means to go, as they (the Virginians) were a people sot to be depended on. That many other diabolic i artifices had been used by those tools of Go. vernment, to infligate thefe Savagos to attack our frontiers -Particularly the Virginians were represented to them, as a dillind people, and that their attacking them, would not be refented by the other Colonies.

Capt, Wood had this recount fiff from the Delawares, who appeared friendly, and gave him the Belt and String which had been fent them. All the other Tribes sonfirmed this account, and promifed to attend the Treaty - The Shawanete affered him. whatever they had received from Fort Detroit, they had buried in the ground never more to rife; but that the foolish Tawix. tawees and Peets, had accepted the Belts.

Chenufaw, one of the hollages who efcaped from Williamburg fometime ago, arrived at the Shawany Town the day before Captain Wood .- He had informed the Indians, that all the people of Virginia were preparing for war, and determined to attack the Indiane, except the Governor, whom the people had obliged to go on board a man or war. That the hofrages had difcovered they were to be made flaves. and fent to fome other country, which he affigued as the region for his escape. But on Captain Wood's explaining the matter to the Indians, they appeared entirely fatisfied. Winchefter, August 16, 1775.

L O N D O N, June 28. HE Sheriff. Plomer and Hart waited I on his Majelty at St. James's, in confequence of the King's appointment laft Saturday at Kew. Mr. Sheriff Plomer addreffed his Majesty in the following words, " May it please your Majefty, We are ordered by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery of the City of London, in Common Mall affembled, to wait upon your Majefty. humbly to knew your Majefty's Royal Will and Pleafure, when your Majety will be pleased to receive, upon the Throne, their humble Address. Remonfrance and Petition." His Majuly replied, "You will please to take notice, that I will receive their Addrels, Remonurance, and Petition, on Friday next at the Levee." Mr. Sheriff Plomer then faid, " Your Mejedy will permit us to inform you, that the Livery in Common Hall affembled, have refolved not to prefent their Address, Remonstrance, and to receive it fitting on the throne." The King answered, "I am ever ready to re-

RESOLVED. That the King is bound to hear the petitions of his people, it being the undoubted right of the fuljed to be heard, and not a matter of grace and

Refelved, That his Majely's answer is a direct denial of the right of this court to have their petitions beurd. Refelved. That fuch deaisl renders the right of petitioning the Throne, recognized and established by the revolution, of no effect.

Refolved, That whoever advised his Majefty directly or indirectly, to refuse hearing the humble address, remonkrance, and petition of this court on the Throne, is equally an enemy to the happiness and fecurity of the King, and to the peace and liberties of the people.

The following is the address, petition and remonstrance, agreed to by the Commonhall on the zath of June and intended to have been delivered to the King on the Throne.

To the KING's Mon Excellent Majelty. The humble Adarets, Remonfirance, and Petition, of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery of London.

Maft grastous Sovereign, WE your Majesty's mon tathful fubjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Livery, &cc of London, in Common hall affembled, are compelled again to difterb your Majefly's repole, with our complaints.

We have already expressed to your Maje-Ry our abhorrence of the tyrannical meafures purfued against our fellow fullyets in Asperica, as well as of the men who feeretly advife, and of the minifters who execute thefe mealures.

We defire to repeat again, that the power contended for ever the colonies, under the specious name of dignity, is to all istents and purpoles, despotitm; and that the exercise of despotic power, in any part of the empire, is inconfident with the character and fatery of this country.

As we would not fafer any man, or body of men, to eftablish arbitrary power over us, we cannot acquielee in any attempt to sorce it upon my part of our fellow fubjects ; we pre perfuaded that by the facred unalterable rights of human nature, as well as by every principle of the conflitution, the Americans ought to enjoy peace, liberty and fafety; that whatever power invades thefe rights oughe to be refifted; we hold fuch refitt ance in vindication of their confitutional rights, to be their indifpentable duty to God, from whom those rights are derived, to themfelves, who cannot be fale and happy with out them; to their policity, who have a right to claim this whe itance at their hands unviolated and unimparted.

We have arready remonstrated to your Majefly that their meafures were big with all the confequences which could alarm a free and commercial people; a deep, and perhaps fatal wound to commerce ; the ruin of manut dures ; the eliminution of the revenue and configuent increase or texes, the sliciation of the colonies, and the blood of your Majelly's fubjects.

Unhappily, Sire, the worft of thefe apprehentions is now realized in all its horror: We have feen, with equal dread and conceru, a civil war commenced in America, by your Majefty's commander in chief : Will your Majetty be pleased to confider what must be the figuation of your people here, who have nothing now to expect from America, but Gazettes of blood, and mutual lifte of their flaugatered fellow fubjeds.

Every manent's profecution of this fatal war may looks irreparably the bonds of that connection, on which the glory and fale y of the British empire depend.

It any thing could add to the slarm of thefe events, it is your Majetty's having dechared your confidence in the wildom of men. a majority of whom are netoriously bribed

About the state of the state of

to betray their conflituents and their country. It is the misfortune of your Mijelly; it is the misfortune and grief of your people, to have a grand council, and a representative, under an untue and dangerous influence; an influence which though procueed by your Miniflers, is dangerous to your Mijefty, by deceiving you; and to your people by betraying them.

In fuch a fituation, your petitioners are bound to declare to your Majely, that they cannot and will not fit unconcerned; that they will exert themselves, at every hezard, to bring those who have advised these ruin; ous measures to the Justice of this country and of the much injured colonies.

We have already figuified our persuation that thefe evils originate in the feeret advice of those, who are equally enemies to your Majefty's title, and to the rights of your people. Your petitioners are now compelled to fay, that your throne is furrounded by men avowedly inimical to thole principles on which your Majefty poffeffes the crowa, and this people their liberties : At a time of fuch difficulty and danger, public confidence is effential to your Majefty's repofe, and to the prefervation of your people :-Such confidence cannot be obtained by mi nifters and advifers who want wifdom, and hold priciples incompatible with freedem; nor can any hope of relief be expected from a parliament, chofen under a national delufion, infidieufly raifed, by mifreprefentations touching the true flate of America, and arttully embraced by a precipitate d'Aslution.

Your petitioners therefore again pray and befeech your Majaty to difmits your prefent ministers and advicers from your person and counsels for ever; to disloive a parliament, who, by various acts of orneity and injuffice, have manifelted a spirit of perfecution against our brethren in America, and given their function to popery and arbitrary power; to put your future confidence in minifters, whose known and unfhaken attachment to the conflitution, joined to your wifdom and integrity, may enable your Majefty to fettle this alarming dispute upon the fure, henourable, and lafting foundations of general le berty. And a motion being made, and queftion put, to agree to the faid address, remenfrance and petition, the fame was refelved in the affirmative.

Signed by Order,

Our whole infantry confils of 70 regi ments (belides foot guards and marines); feven regiments and one battalion of the fire regiment are at Gibraltar. Six regiments and the fecond battalion of the ard regiment are at Minorea; one in the Caribbee Iffinds, hree in Jamaica, one in Antigua, and one in the Grenades. . There are twenty regi ments and five companies already on the Commons of America. So that having thus forty regiments and five companies abroad, we have no more than twenty regiments in Ireland, and nine regiments and tome companies of two others in Great Britain .-Thefe, with the horfe, and horfe grenadier guards, four regiments of harfe, three reli ments of dragoon guards, and eighteen regiments of dragoons, form the whole military defeace of Great Britain and I cland.

July 6. The warment advocates for administration begin to own that France and Spain have a greater force now at fea, or ready to put to fea at a few days notice, than Great Britain by its n'most efforts e ald equip or fit out in twelve months: The united or confederate feets amounting to 92 men of war of the line, and the moft languine promises of the First Lord of the Admiralty not exceeding 80 men of war of the line within the abovementioned period, that is to fay, 30 within a month, 20 more in four months, and the remainder in the course of the year. Such is the humiliating hate of Great Britein, once the mittrefs and great arbitrefs of the ocan.

July 8. It is faid that Gen. Gage has written in the most preffing terms, eitner to be recalled, or have 15 000 men fent him. A regiment of Marines is ging to be railed in Ireland, which is to confid or a thousand men, exclusive of Officers.

It is conti ently afferted in the city, that the miniary have received advice from Lifbon that the Spaniards are drawing a large army towards their frontiers, and therefore it is apprehended that they defign to invade fome part of the Portuguele territories; that in fuch case the court of Portugal requests an immediate aid and affiftance from England. The Patty, Loudon, from New York, arrived at Liverpool on Wednelday lak, after a passage of nive weeks : This vessel has brought the eargo back, which she took from that port in Nevember laft, not being fuffered to land it at New York.

In one of the letters brought by Captain Grant, there is a more favourable account of the fkirmish on the Islands, by which the number of the killed and wounded are much leffened, and the lofs of the King's floop accounted for en account of the lee fhore, and krong eddies, that fet in amongst the Idanes. to reduce the dam is Great Sag

By a brig, Capt. Ceffra, which arrived days, from Nantucket, we have the following advice :

ENERAL Gage having ordered the T inhabitants to leave Bofton, they all complied except the Quakers, who refused to quit their habitations; on which the men of war began to fire on the town and beat down twenty or thirty houses; when the Quakers lett the town, which is new inhabited by General Gage and his troops

Last night Captain Grant, of the ship Æneas, from Salem, arrived at Dover, with two families from thence, who were obliged to leave that place on account of the daily dreadful feenes of bloodthed. Capt. Grane advices, that upwards of thirty thoutand Provincials are muftered every morning, and that General Potnam had fent to acquaint General Gage, that he would meet him at the head of his troops, and that the Gene rai would turn out man for man in the field. The Captain farther fays, that he had much ado to get leave to come from thence; that he fent up to the Congress to know whether he might fail for England, as his thip was laden, who tent him word down he might but would not fuffer him to carry any letters, and he was obliged to leave upwards of 2000 behind him, and only brought five, which were in his pocket. He further adds, that the Provincials have entirely stopped up the port at Salem, and that his thip would be the last that they would fuffer to come from thence. He failed the 7th of June at night, and arrived at Dover the 5th inftant.

By letters from New York there is an account of the proceeding of the Congress at Philadelphia as low down as the 18th of May; by which it appears, that from what had transpired of their proceedings, they were far from being unanimous; that Mr. Dickenson had in a most elaborate speech of two hours long, propoted a plan of reconciliation by effering to his Majefty a yearly revenue, on certain conditions : The ground work of his plan was founded on the anci ent grants of Parliament to the Kings of England in lieu of Royalties, Court of Wards, and other hereditable rights; and fome particular grants of this kind in Charles the It's reign were particularly referred to .- The speech was acknowledged to be very ingenious, and thewed Mr. Dickenfon to be well verted in the History of England, and well acquainted with the great conflitutional parts of it; but was much diff ked by many of the Delegates, and fo very ill re ifhed by Meffes. Ous and Hancock, that they left the house abruptly - Dr. Franklin had not yet fpoke ; his filence was not very well liked by many of the Delegates, who did not know what to make of him, and the triends of Government out of doors, did not feruple to fay that his lying by was an artiul way of feeling how the pulle beat of the Delegates in general, who are most of them ftrangers to him.

Yesterday arrived in the Downs, the Sir William Johnson, Capt. Dean, from New York. She failed from thence the oth of June, and has brought difpatches for Government, which were put on thore at Deal. July 11. Friday at a Court of Common Council held at Guildhall, in order to take into confideration the Letter received by the Lord Mayor from the Committee at New York, Mr. Staveley moved, that a number of Refolutions he produced should be prefented to the King by the Court ; which not being approved of, Mr. Hunt made the following motion;

" That an humble Address and Petition be presented to his Majefiy, praying that he will be pleafed to caute hokilities to ceafe between Great Britain and America, and to adopt fuch measures as will reftore Union, Confidence, and Peace over the British Empire."

This Motion, after feveral debates the Quellion being put, upon the flew of hands was carried in the affi mative.

The number for the motion were : Six Aldermen, fixty fix Commoners, and two Tellers, Total 74.

Against the motion : Six Aldermen, lixty one Commoners, and two Tellers.

Majority for the motion, Mr. Hunt then moved, that a committee of fix Aldermen and twelve Commoners. might be directly appointed to draw up the Petition and Address, which paffed in the affirmative. The Committee withdrew, and in a fhort time, returned with a most respecful Petition and Address, which met with the approbation of the whole Court except one diffenting Alderman.

The Sheriffs are directed to attend his Majefly at St. James's next Wednefday, in order to know when he will be pleated to receive the above address, which will be prefeated by the Lord Mayor, Altermen, and Common Council, in their gowns.

There is a report current, that the Conapplication of the a posse application because, or any two grefi has wrote to Lord Ductmonth a con ciliatory letter to fettle the difference batween Great Britain and America .- In s at Irongate Stairs on Thursday night in 21 letter is to be Taid before the Privy Council, and the Congress Delegates are to remain. at Philadelphia, in an adjourned flate for their antwer.

This day the Lord Chancellor was frut for to attend a Cabinet Council, at Land Rochford's office on the fubject of fome ndvices received from New York. His Lordthip rememed to Fairy hill in the atterpoon.

Briffel, July 4. Two thousand butreis of four were bought yellerday for Newfoundland, the people on the fiftery being in the greatest diffres, only 21b. of bread per week, per man being the allow hee : and it is supposed many will leave the fifth ery on account of the want of providing --It is generally thought the Well India id ands will foon be in the fame flate.

CAMBRIDGE. August 31. Two of the enemy's floating batteries attempting to annoy our people at work upon Plow'd Hill, were filenced in Millick River, and one of them partly funk by fome of our ca non placed at Temple's Farm.

Bunker Hill, Plow'd Hill, and Winter Hill are fituated in a range from eaft to welt, each of them on or near Miffick River ; Plow'd Hill is in the middle, and is the lowest of the three, the fummit of which is about half a mile from the enemy's works on Bunker Hill.

The enemy, finding but little effect frem their firing lat Sabbath, began to relax on Monday; they, however, at times, fill continue their fire. - Our men are now well feoured in their new post, and are completing their works with great expedicion.

NEW. LONDON, September 1. Wednesday morning a Tender chased two fmail floops into Stonington barbour, who had a number of people on board, bound to Block Iffind, and they had but just time to get on there, before the tender came in and after making a tack they came close along file of C. pt. We have one man mortally wounded, and the houses, flores, &c. very much fh ttered. Yefterday moraing they failed out and anchored at the north fide of the well end of Fisher's iffand, where they remained at this publication. There were five or fix killed on board the tenders, by the inhabitants, who affembled and were under arms the whole day. Extrast of a letter from Charles Town, South Carolina, dated August 20: 1775. " Every thing here is suspended but warlike preparations .- It is faid that there are fearce 200 men in town not enrolled -The country is unanimous - Our two regiments of feot are every day training, and almost complete .- About a week ago a fmall floop from this town boarded a fnow from England, ia Augustine Bay, and carried off between twelve and fourteen thousand pounds of powder, mostly belonging to the King. She had been fent privately with thirty refolute men, well armed, by our Committee, in order to intercept the veffal on the coaft, but was difappointed, being rather too late, for there were forty thoufand pounds landed, with four brais field pieces, the day before our floop bearded her. There were twelve foldiers fent from Augustine to affilt and defend the fnow, to whom our people gave ten guineas for helping them out with the powder, and being fo modeft as not to refift. A man of war was in fight, but fortunately aground the few hours our people ftayed. We foiked up the fnow's guns, and then went off triumphant, although attacked by the boats full of armed men. One got within a hundred that moment a fresh gale sprang up. Our that the committee of Fairfield knew of and

It was reported they were purfued by the armed veffels from Augustine; to which place, on hearing of this, our Council of Safety dispatched filteen artillery men and fifteen grenadiers, by water, and a company of our provincials to Beaufort, to affift the country people in the defence of the acquisition. We are putting the town in a posture of desence, and are all determined to oppose whatever troops may come here. In Committee of Safety of New Jerjey.
